A Planned Gift: Providing for What Means the Most to You

Has Tri Sigma held a special place in your heart? Give your sisters the opportunities that Tri Sigma gave you by including the Foundation as a beneficiary, or partial beneficiary, of your life insurance, 401k, or estate. It is often as easy as including a sentence in your will or filling out a change of beneficiary form.

It costs nothing today, but it is a priceless gift empowering women for generations to come. Make a difference with the legacy you leave.

Naming the Foundation in Your Estate Plans

The following language may help you and your attorney when drawing up a bequest that meets your needs:

"I give, devise or bequeath to Sigma Sigma Sigma Foundation, Inc., a charitable institution located at 225 North Muhlenberg Street, Woodstock, VA, 22664, the sum of $___ for its general purposes or ___% of the remainder of my estate."

Legal name: Sigma Sigma Sigma Foundation, Inc.

Address: 225 N. Muhlenberg Street, Woodstock, VA 22664

Federal Tax ID number: 52-1370798

Your personal intentions regarding any restrictions of your gift may be added where applicable. For information on specific funds, please contact Summer Sage, Advancement Officer at 434.960.9816 or ssage@trisigma.org.

Naming the Foundation in Other Estate Plans

Many other estate planning exist that can help the Foundation in the future. Women often name the Foundation as a beneficiary on their IRAs, their insurance policies, and their retirement plans. The Foundation can be named as a recipient of a charitable trusts or annuity, which may provide lifetime giving for you and your family, with an eventual charitable gift to the Foundation.

Join our Heritage Society today by notifying us of your plans! We want to recognize you now for your thoughtful gift. For more information, please contact Summer Sage Advancement Officer at 434.960.9816 or ssage@trisigma.org.
